Technical Presentation

Please join us in welcoming Dianna Tickner for our January meeting. Dianna is a distinguished Alumna of Missouri S&T (formerly UM-Rolla) and sits on several advisory boards there. She also earned an MBA from University of Montana, and additional business degrees from Darden Graduate School. In 2006, the St. Louis Business Journal named her one of the Most Influential Business Women. She has over 30 years' experience in the coal industry, most of it with Peabody Energy and its subsidiaries. She now works as Director of power plant decommissioning and demolition for Dynegy.

Her presentation will cover the current and future state of the global coal industry. She will primarily focus on the changing markets of the US, Australia, and Indonesia.
